APPEALED TO DISTRICT COURT

Tanbush Versus Anderson et al.
An appeal from the city court was filed in the district court yesterday in the case of M. Tanbush versus A. W. Anderson et al. Mr. Tanbush sued the defendant some time ago for $150 damages. It was alleged by him that the defendant had rented him fifty acres of hay land at the rate of one-half, he claimed he cut a crop from the premises and not allowed to finish putting up the crop. Wherefore he asked damages. The case came up before Judge Kirk and he dismissed the case on defendant's demurrer to evidence.

Mrs. Quinn had a host of friends in Wichita who loved her for her bright mind and womanly ways, and will feel keenly her death.

REWARD OF MERIT.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less Than One Year.
Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article to say nothing of achieving popular favor, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that today it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure, a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but every one familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians, who formerly depended upon cathartics, sprays and local washes or ointments now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, Guaiac, Zucupol, and Sanguinaria.

FOR THE ORIENT ROAD

Surveying Party Arrive Here to Make Preliminary Survey.

EAST TO KANSAS CITY

Work in Charge of Locating Engineer Armstrong.

A party of surveyors who are making the preliminary survey for the Orient road arrived here yesterday and are camped east of the city on Fairmount. The party is under the charge of Locating Engineer W. R. Armstrong, and the men number thirteen. They have the usual amount of surveyors equipment and the work of the preliminary survey from Wichita to Kansas City will be begun today. The direction will be northeast toward El Dorado. Just where it starts from the center of the city is not yet known as the decision in regard to that matter has not yet been made. Mr. Armstrong was in consultation with Mr. U. V. Ferguson yesterday in regard to survey matters and the situation was thoroughly gone over.

The surveying party has been in Oklahoma and has made the preliminary survey to this city. The entire line is mapped to the west of the city and the entrance to the city has not yet been decided upon. The matter of the survey east is being rushed and the entire line to Kansas City will be hastily gone over. It was announced here by one member of the surveying party that the survey road will be from the center of the city and some of the principal cities in that direction.

Regarding the matter of the appointing of a receiver for the Guardian Trust company which is interested in the financial end of the road, an Associated Press dispatch from Kansas City to the Eagle says:

"Judge John F. Phillips, in the United States District court today postponed to one week from date the hearing on application for a receivership for the Guardian Trust company made yesterday by John V. Gates of Chicago, and other security holders of that company."

Grading has been commenced in the territory south of Harper. A number of men and teams are at work on the road and the grading is being carried toward this city. The work is under the direction of W. C. Edwards and there has been a rumor current that Edwards would move to this city after the construction of the road.

A. E. Stillwell who has been in the east for some time returned to Kansas City Tuesday and when asked concerning the movement for a receiver for the Guardian Trust company, and whether it would affect that financial matter of the new road, he said as follows:

BEAUTIFUL MEMORIAL SERVICES

Held by the Eggleston Post and the Ladies Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon Eggleston post held memorial services under a most ritual and was very impressive and touching. The hall was adorned with banners and flags and a large number of bouquet of flowers and evergreen cuttings. The emblems of mourning and remembrance were draped over the official furniture and nine empty chairs in front of the altar were gracefully dressed. These were in honor of the nine dead of the last year.

Post Commander De Ross conducted the ritual services.

Mrs. Addie Homrighous rendered two selections appropriate to the occasion in a charmingly sweet and appropriate voice moving all hearts to tenderest sympathy. She was accompanied by Miss Grace Chapman of the piano who also executed a selected number of rare beauty in line of her artistry.

Past Post Commander W. T. Burgess, delivered the memorial address, paying a tribute to "our dead," as he called them, and to the Grand Army of the Republic as the "Roll of Honor." He spoke feelingly of their honorable record, their life and death.

The memorial services then closed with the singing of the doxology, the entire audience joining in the anthem, the ladies of the G. A. R. being present and participating in the ceremonies. After this a committee of ladies, Mesdames De Ross, Moore, and Snyder presented a beautiful altar flag and a large cemetery flag, 3 x 12 feet to the post. Mrs. De Ross making a touching and eloquent presentation address, which was responded to on behalf of the Post by Commander De Ross. Officers of the Day Clark and others. This presentation came as a surprise to members and the ladies were highly complimented in fitting expressions of pleasure and gratitude. Mrs. Lawrence then gave a recitation, appropriate and expressive, in her finished and pleasing manner. In compliment to Mrs. Homrighous and Miss Grace Chapman, upon their retiring from the post members arose to their feet and remained standing while a committee of ladies escorted them from the hall with honors.

FAIRMOUNT TEAM PRACTICES

Getting in Condition for Remaining Football Games.

All the Fairmount football players were out on the gridiron yesterday afternoon for a practice game. The second team played the first. The object of the game was to get the men of the first team more used to the plays. The boys made such a good showing against Fairmount that they are really encouraged by the result of the Manhattan game. They are determined now to win the remaining games on their schedule.

Mr. Hess, the coach, intends to keep the men in fine shape. By working hard constantly in practice games with the first team they are really encouraged to be victors in their remaining games this season.

NEWELL PLEADS GUILTY

Fined Ten Dollars and Costs for Picking a Pocket.
Frank Newell was tried yesterday for the alleged picking of David Pfeider's pocket near Furley, Kansas. When brought before Judge Kirk he pleaded guilty as charged and received a fine of $10 with costs of the case amounting to $2.75. There seemed to be little evidence against Newell but as he pleaded guilty he must be the man wanted.

Newell was arrested a week ago. He was charged with having picked Mr. Pfeider's pocket of a watch, razor and pocketknife. As he confessed to the crime he will now have the privilege of working out his fine on the rock pile.

HETH IS ARRESTED

Wanted in Wichita on Three Distinct Charges.

CONFINED AT WELLINGTON

Is Implicated in Store Robbery at Belle Plaine.

Bob Heth who is wanted by the Wichita officers on three distinct charges is under arrest and is confined in the county jail in Sumner county at Wellington. Heth is wanted here on one charge of stealing a bicycle, another of stealing a horse and wagon in company with another man and the third charge is that of stealing two bicycles out of Lison Bros' bicycle store, one night last summer.

The crime for which Heth is now in confinement was committed at Belle Plaine some weeks ago. The citizens of that town were aroused one night by the announcement that some men were robbing a store. The people surrounded the store with shot-guns and finally the two men appeared on the porch above the store. The crowd opened fire and as a result, one of the men who gave his name as Anderson, was shot and wounded in the limbs. It afterward developed that the man was the same fellow who, under the name of Emerson, shot at Officer Sam Jones on North Main street some time ago.

Heth during the excitement escaped and at the same time the Wichita officers were looking for him on the charges here. The officials of Sumner county wanted him also. Heth was arrested at St. Paul and a wheel stolen from C. B. Walker, the book-keeper at L. W. Clapp's, was found in Heth's room.

Since his confinement in the Sumner county jail, Heth has been identified as the man who was one of the two who escaped at Udall from the people who tried to detain them on the charge of stealing the bicycles from Lison's store. The men tried to steal the wheels there, or in fact did dispose of them, and the purchases became suspicious and decided to hold the men, but the men got away and were not captured at that time.

In order to make sure that the man at Wellington was the one wanted here, Detective Sutton made a trip to that city yesterday and identified him as Heth, and the same man was wanted here. While Sutton was there Heth was examined and was found to have several shots in his body, the result of the Bell Plaine escapade.

Anderson, or Emerson, as he is known here, has turned evidence against Heth and states that he is the man who was with him at Belle Plaine and says that he was the man who secured the wheels and also the horse and buggy in this city.

The career of Heth is peculiar. Some four years ago he went to Belle Plaine to play bill with a team from that place and when he started home he walked. On the way home he entered a farm house and secured a revolver and a few things and before he could get out the farmer and his family drove up. The farmer raised a number of the neighbors and they chased Heth to about three miles south of town. A man named Swartz was one of the pursuers and when he thought that he had Heth foul, he pulled out the revolver secured at the farm house and shot the man in the face. Heth got away and went to Missouri. He was afterward caught and returned here. He was given a sentence in the penitentiary of ten years. Soon after being committed, "Tiger" Bill Campbell became interested and secured a reversal of the case on the grounds that Heth was only 18 years of age; that he was scared and did the shooting in self defense. The case came up for trial and was dismissed and Heth went free.

A few months ago Heth got into trouble here and left for Missouri. Sheriff Simmons had a warrant for him and brought him back, and when tried was given a sentence for petty larceny. He served his term and a short time after being released from custody, the bicycles were taken from the Lison store on Lawrence avenue. The officers watched the case and became satisfied that Heth was the man wanted. Anderson, or Emerson has given the officers information and both Heth and Anderson have been identified as the men who got away with wheels. After that time the wheel belonging to Walker was stolen and when the officers went to get Heth they found the wheel in his room. This makes the chain of evidence stronger. The horse stealing affair occurred in September and the evidence is that Heth and the man called Anderson are the fellows. The horse was found in the south part of the city and was returned to the owner. People who saw the horse and buggy claim that two men had it in their possession.

Heth will be prosecuted by the authorities of Sumner county and when he is released, as he will be some time, the three charges will start him in the face. The officers here are eager over the capture of Heth, as he is considered a bad man, although young in years. The fact of his shooting a man and being mixed up in so many affairs, is ample evidence of that fact.

He and Frank Spring to Appear in City Court.
Frank Spring and John Doe, whose real name is not known, will be tried in the city court tomorrow for the alleged robbing of G. C. Rice of $125. Mr. Rice says that the two men hold him up and secured his money by threatening to stab him. This play has been presented by a number of repertory companies here in the past few years, but it has not been played before. A waltz was caused by Mr. Reynolds which did not materially mar the smoothness of the play, but which should not occur. Mr. Reynolds made a good villain, and Mr. Costello made a hit as the wronged hero. Mr. Russell's specialty on the piano was entertaining. He was recalled several times.

On the whole the audience was well satisfied with the performance. Tomorrow night they will play "Idahu," a four-act comedy-drama.

Alden Benedict's "Fable Roman" which will be presented at the Crawford theatre next week, is a dramatization by Chas. W. Chase of Maeterlinck's famous novel entitled "The Vaselette." It is a very interesting story and the interest is much strengthened by the dramatic production. It is a melodrama with sense and consistency, as well as undeniable power and unflagging interest. It is filled with interesting dramatic scenes, which grip the fast to the heart strings, and the comedy, which comes in naturally, is not only genuine but appropriate. The play is well staged, the company carrying all the scenery for the production. The great earthshaking scene in the last act is realistic. The plot starts with the discovery of a husband who is afterwards buried alive by his wife and best friend, but emerges from the tomb, and the punishment meted out to the erring pair by that husband is a truly effective theme and is well worked out by the dramatist. The company is specially equipped for the characters assigned them. Walter Lawrence is the dual character of Fable Roman and Cesare Oliva and Miss Martha Beaudou as Nina, the false wife, are highly spoken of by the press wherever the company have appeared. A special feature of the performance will be the introduction between the second and third acts of Mlle. Chantreaux, whose specialties must be seen to be appreciated.

For good looks and fine figures it would be hard to get another bevy of damsels to excel in these qualifications the young ladies who gambol with Hoyt's "A Black Sheep" this season.

ANOTHER MURPHY WITNESSES PLAY.

Con T. Murphy, author of "The Ivy Leaf," visited the opening of that attraction at the Academy yesterday afternoon. He paid a visit back on the stage and made the acquaintance of a number of the people of the court, some of whom he did not know. When the curtain went up on the first act he was "out front" and closely watched the progress of the play. When the last act was over he said:

"I think the present presenting company is one of the best that has yet been given my play. Not only have they all been carefully rehearsed, but at the same time they come near realizing on the stage the various characters of the drama as I conceived them when I wrote 'The Ivy Leaf.'"

Evidently the
